Maspeth, L. I., Dec. 2.-A good sized growd assembled at he Empire Athletic club arena tonight to witness the bout between Joe Walcott, the Boston colored boy, and "Kid" Lavigne, the

In order to secure a man to meet Walcott, Tom O'Rouke agreed to get Joe down to 133 pounds, and if Lavigne should last through fifteen rounds, he was to be declared the winner. O'Rouke mod the fact of his man having to reduce to 133 pounds would lessen his chances of success and the betting tonight was 100 to 60 on Walcott.

Sam Fitzpatrick, who trains Lavigne was equally confident of his man's ability to stand off the colored lad and so-cure the purse.

The preliminary bout was to have been between Jerry Marshall of Austra-lia and Solly Smith of California. When the boys weighed this afternoon Marshall was 314 pounds over the stipulated 122 pounds and the bout was declared

The sporting element scated round the roped arena was a very representative one. John L. Sullivan received the nsien he took a seat in a box at the ringside.

Tim Hurst acted as referee and at 8:30 O'clock he announced that the pro-liminary bout would be between Casper Leon of New York and Joe Elms of on. The boys had fought three hard rounds with honors in favor of Leon when the referree stopped the fight and awarded it to the New Yorker.

At 9:20 o'clock Walcott climbed through the ropes, accompanied by Tom O'Rouke, George Dixon and Joe Gideon, who were his seconds.

At 9:22 Joe (Kid) Lavigne came on At 9:22 Joe (Kid) Lavigne came on. He was seconded by Sam Fitzpatrick, Ted Alexander and Tommy Ryan.

Announcer Harvey then stated that Walcott desired to challenge Tommy Ryan for a fight at some future day. Ryan accepted the challenge and a match will be arranged. The mon then wheely hands as 2.25

then sent his right to the face and up-percut on the breast. Lavigne got his right to the body and sent his left under the chin. Lavigne dodged two offerce rushes. Walcott led on head, La-vone countered on body. Lavigne was lourly cheered when he punched Wal-cost straight on the nose with his right. They were mixing it up when the round

Round 9-Walcott started in by jabbing left in face and right on body and Lavigne kept moving away. Kid turn-od and swung his right on Joe's left ear. By this time Lavigne's left ear was hanging off and his nose was bleeding badly. At the end of this round Walout was still jubbing right and left. Round 10—Walcott went right at the Saginaw man and landed left on face. He fought the Kid all around the ring, banging with both hands and upper-custing with his left on the breast. Lavigne was still game, although he was receiving terrible punishment. Toru O'Rouke said: "Kid is a wonderful boy and very game. He is taking more punishment than Ryan will take."

Round 11-Both countered with left on face. Walcott kept on fighting Lavigne around the ring and ripped his left in on body. In a clinch Walcott smashed his right on Kid's injured ear, bursting it and the blood spurted out on Walcott's face. Lavigne fought game-ly and took his medicine cheerfully, nding back an occasional blow on the Lavigne rushed Walcott to the ropes, being encouraged by the spectators. Walcott still kept jabbing on the body as Lavigne waiked away from him. Kid sent his left twice to Walcott's head and right heavily on the neck. By this time th ecrowd was yelling to Lavigne and cheering him on his gameness. He certainly had the better of this round.

Round 14.-Walcott put his left twice on the body and Lavigne swung his right splendidly on Joe's head. Walcott fell from the force of the swing which he missed. Lavigne punched right and left lively and fought Joe to the ropes. Then he fought Walcott into his corner and when the gong sounded the spectators got up on their seats and screamed like mad men. The sympathy of the house was clearly with the western lad. Round 15 and last—After a rew light cechages Lavigne swung his left on Walcout's head. RUSSELL SAGE WINS IT.

tled in His Favor. St. Louis, Dec. 2.-Judge Sanbörn of the United States circuit court of ap-peals today handed own an opinion in the case of the St. Paul, Minneapolis and Manitoba Railway company, appellant, vs. Russell Sage, trustee, affiming with costs the opinion of the United States circuit court, district of Minnesota, which was in favor of Mr. Sage. The suit involved 26,000 acres of land and has been in the state and federal courts since 1866

While Minnesota was yet a territory in 1837, a railroad company, since absorbed by the present plaintiff, was granted rich concessions which were not taken advantage of promptly. Meantime the Hastings and Dakota rail read, in which Russell Sage has a con trolling interest, was granted territory

The final decision of the appellate court, affirming the circuit court's decree, is that the latter company was dilatory and in consequence its concessions remained in the market.

MADE THE INSURGENTS PLEE.

Pause, in Their Disputches. Havana, Dec. 2.-Lieutenant Feljo and Sergeant Canovasm, who were tried by court- martial yesterday on the charge of having surrendered Fort Pelayo, to the forces of Antonio Maceo, without proper defense, were sentenced today. The lieutenant was condemned to imprisonment for life and the ser geant discharged from custody. The columns of troops commanded by have both been engaged twice with the insurgent forces commanded by Max-imo Gomez in the province of Santa Clara. The insurgents left on the field eighty killed and carried off 300. No further details have been received. General Luque and General Oliver, acting under instructions from General Campos, left their quarters and moved upon the insurgents. General Luque commanded 1,200 infantrymen, 100 cavalrymen and had one piece of artillery, while General Oliver had 1,400 infantry-men, 100 cavalrymen and two pieces of artillery. Their intention was to attack General Gomez, who, at the head of the insurgents, has been encamped

Immediately after this engagement General Oliver received word that Gen-eral Serafin Sanchez was at Tomas Guerrellos with 1,000 men, trying to effect a union with General Gomez. General Oliver at once started in pursuit of General Sanchez. On the following morning an engagement took-place. The troops, encouraged by their previous victory, were eager for the fight. They occupied all of the favorable positions, hoping to keep the insurgents from ef-fecting a retreat. The battle lasted nine hours and was ended by a charge of bayonets ordered by General Oliver. The insurgents dispersed in all direc-tions leaving fifty-eight killed and twenty-three wounded. On the day af-ter this engagement between General Oliver and General Sanchez, the troops while returning to Plaxetas met the Pericodias band of insurgents, numbering fully 500. ## MUNYON'S

GRAND ARMY OF CON-VERTS.

Eight Thousand, Six Hundred and Forty - Five Vials Sold in Wichita During the Past 14 Days.

Where can you find in the annals of medicine such a complete victory over the old school of nauseating and drastic remedies? A few years ago Prof. Munyon, a man of giant intellect, benevolent purposes and determined character, unfolded his new school of medicine through the medium of the press to the public. He did not come with the flourishing of trumpets, proclaiming the wonders of his cures, but with calm and confident assurances of the curative powers of his remedies, William Hays returned yesterday from advertised to give thousands of vials of Rheumatism cure "absolutely free." to the public and requested them to be the jurors to decide upon its merits. What has the verdict been? One continued success throughout this vast continent. Thousands of sufferers, who never knew what it was to be free from pain, bless the name of Mun-yon, the modern benefactor of the human race. Advertising has its advantages in bringing it before the advantages in bringing it before the people, but the unquestionable merit of his preparations has stood the test for the past four years, and now Prof. for the past four years, and now Prof. Munyon's name is a household word in every family in this country, proving without a doubt the efficacy of his cures and the honest victory he has won against bigotry and prejudice. To those who are still in doubt we have this to say: If you are careless about your own health, have mercy on the little ones who know no better, and do not commit the sin of neglect by continuing to give remedies that will doubtless harm them in after life when you have in your reach, at a nominal price, cures that will effect the desired result without injury to the system.
